TEN YEARS IN STATE PRISON

This Sentence Imposed on Dr. W. L. Vestal.

Through Counsel He Pleaded Guilty of Manslaughter Yesterday Morning When Court Convened—Mrs. Vestal Released—Plea by Counsel For Light Sentence—The Limit Given by Judge Lyon.

In Superior court yesterday morning the trial of Dr. W. L. Vestal and his wife, Fanny Vestal, for the alleged murder of Bessie Thomason, as the result of a criminal operation performed on her at Vestal's home in High Point July 1, came to a sudden termination, after testimony by two states' witnesses, by announcement by Judge Bynum, of counsel for defense that it had been agreed for the jury to return a verdict of guilty of manslaughter as to Dr. Vestal and not guilty as to Mrs. Vestal.

In another indictment where Dr. Vestal is charged with a criminal operation on May Owen, a plea of guilty was entered and judgment was suspended.

After appeals for clemency had been made by Judge Bynum, Judge Strudwick, Col. Wescott Robertson and Mr. John T. Benbow, of counsel for defendant, and insistence by counsel for the State for a sentence that would not only punish Dr. Vestal, but would act as a deterrent to other physicians who might be persuaded to become guilty of the same offense, Judge Lyon gave the defendant the maximum punishment of ten years at hard labor in the State prison.

A capias was ordered to issue for the arrest of Levy Maynard, indicted for being an accessory before the fact in the same case, but he has not yet been apprehended.

Numerous witnesses for the prosecution were sworn after the jury had been empaneled to try the case, several being physicians of High Point and Greensboro.

As was stated yesterday morning W. A. Thomason, father of the murdered girl, and Mrs. Dore, the nurse who attended her during her illness, were examined on Thursday afternoon. When court convened yesterday morning Judge W. P. Bynum, counsel for the defense, arose and stated that in order to save further time it had been agreed for Dr. Vestal to plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter. He stated that while there was a possibility of his client's being acquitted there was still the charge of abortion confronting him, with his victim, May Owen, who recovered from the operation, to testify against him. As he could not possibly escape conviction in this case it had been thought best to plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter. He pleaded not guilty as to Mrs. Vestal. He pointed out that there was not any evidence of malice whatsoever, but it appeared that the physician had intended to save the girl from moral and social exposure. Solicitor Gattis agreed to this and Judge Lyon ordered that this verdict be recorded. As to Levy Maynard the case was ordered "capias and continued."

Judge Bynum made an eloquent plea for leniency for his client. He pointed out the fact that within the last few years his client had become addicted to the liquor and drug habit, his moral responsibilities being blunted thereby and making him unable to resist the appeals for assistance in such cases. He then touched upon the legal points in the case, pointing out the fact that the statute regarding the punishment for manslaughter had been so arranged that a defendant could be given as short a sentence as four months, the court to decide as to the length of the term to be imposed.

Col. Wescott Robertson also made a plea for leniency, stating that Dr. Vestal was loved by people all over High Point, that in many instances he had gone forth to alleviate suffering without reward or hope of reward. His kind heart,

Ladies you have no idea of the extent of our shoe department unless you have carefully looked into this feature of our business. There is no use to go elsewhere if you prefer to trade with us and we hope you do, to find almost anything in a desirable shoe. Call and let us show you what an extensive line of styles we carry. J. M. Hendrix & Co.

was in reality his own undoing for he could not resist the appeals from others when in distress, his operation being for the purpose of saving the girl. He also mentioned that the drug habit had fastened on him with such a hold that he did such things without reasoning whether they were right or wrong. He said the defendant had never been in trouble before and there was nothing vicious about him. He had many friends in High Point and was a good neighbor, a quiet citizen, a good husband and a kind and loving father.

Mr. John T. Benbow, of Winston, stated that he had known Dr. Vestal from infancy, also Mrs. Vestal. They were all raised in Yadkin county and the families of both Dr. and Mrs. Vestal were of the best. "Not criminal intent," he concluded, "but liquor and drugs are primarily responsible for this present trouble."

Ex-Judge Strudwick dwelt upon the statute prescribing the sentence for manslaughter, pointing out the fact that often in cases of manslaughter life is taken without much criminality and for this reason a minimum sentence of four months had been prescribed. He argued that the law as laid down fully justified a moderate sentence.

County Attorney J. N. Wilson argued for a maximum sentence. He declared that the case was equal to the worst ever brought to light in the state and he felt that great service would be done in preventing other crimes of like character by giving speedy and sure justice in this case. He stated that he had been employed by the county to assist in the ferreting out of evidence at the investigation made by the coroner's jury that the truth might be established. He hoped that the sentence would be so severe as to serve as a warning to others committing such crimes throughout the state.

Mr. L. C. Caldwell pointed out the fact that the father of the dead girl only wanted justice and was not prompted by malice. He stated in reply to the complimentary remarks of the counsel for the defense as to Dr. Vestal's high character that the physician should have notified her father at once of her condition and pursued a course that was not fatal and criminal alike. He paid a high tribute to the medical profession and placed it as the highest calling, excepting that of the ministry. He called attention to the fact that another girl, May Owen, on whom a like operation had been performed had been taken to the hospital where for days her life hung by a thread. He declared that the punishment in this case should be so severe as to be a protection to the medical profession as well as to the citizenship. He also pointed out the fact that Dr. Vestal had committed other crimes of like character and was known for his work along this line far and wide. He declared that the punishment should be such as to teach other girls to allow nature to take her course when they went astray.

Solicitor Gattis stated that this was the worst case ever ferreted out in North Carolina and in his official capacity he had received information that several similar operations had been performed by physicians, some being performed in Greensboro. As an agricultural state such criminal operations had not become frequent, but with the increasing population in the cities they would increase unless there was a check placed on them. He urged that the limit sentence be imposed. He concluded by stating that he was not asking for vengeance, but simply justice. He had not intended to say anything, but in view of the strenuous pleas for mercy by the defense he felt it his duty to make this statement.

Judge Lyon stated that while he approved the course taken by the solicitor in regard to the disposition of the case he hoped that it would be the last case of its kind to ever appear on a North Carolina docket. "It is the saddest, worst case it has been my misfortune to ever witness," he said. "I am sorry for the defendant, his wife and children and for the relatives of the dead girl. One object of the law is to deter others from committing like offenses and if this fails then the purpose of the punishment is not effective. Of course the punishment is not effective. Of course the punishment is not effective."

CONTRACT IS NOW ASSURED Committee Recommendations Accepted.

And Water and Light Commission and Special Committee Empowered To Make Contract With Public Service Company For Lighting the City At Rates Satisfactory to Both Parties—Substitute by Alderman King.

The Board of Aldermen by a vote of four to one last night adopted the report of the Water and Light Commission and special committee recommending that a contract be made with the North Carolina Public Service Company for lighting the city. The rates proposed are $58 per light per annum for arc lamps providing 175 are used; $20 per lamp per annum for 80 candle power tungstens; $15 per lamp per annum for 60 candle power tungstens, these to be used in lieu of a portion of the arcs if desired. The contract is for 10 years and the scale per lamp is increased or decreased according to the number of lamps used. The lamps will burn every night. The company also takes over the present equipment of the city for the sum of $6,000. The above is satisfactory to the company.

The work of overhauling the lighting system will be commenced as early as possible and the company has promised that the new lamps will be burning before the end of the year. All the old lamps will be replaced with new and modern lamps, while a number of new lights will be placed at points designated by the Water and Light Commission.

Alderman King submitted a substitute as a minority report of the committee, the substitute making the same rates, based on the condition that private consumers be made a 10 cent rate less 5 per cent. discount for cash. If this was refused then the Water and Light Commission was empowered to equip a plant to light the city, after ascertaining whether or not the current could be procured from the Southern Power Company. This substitute he discussed at length, claiming that the city could save enough in 10 years to pay the cost of the plant.

Alderman Albright stated that he did not believe that this could be done and he thought that the report of the committee, which had made a careful study of the subject, should be adopted. Alderman Glascock said while he thought the rate per light was somewhat high he was of the opinion that a city ought to go mighty slow in erecting a municipal plant, especially so in view of the fact that so many cities had tried the experiment and it had proven a failure. He thought it best to abide by the committee report. The vote on the substitute was four to one against. The committee report was then voted on as follows: Albright aye, Clendenin aye, Glascock aye, King no, Smith aye. The report was adopted.

CITY TO HAVE "CLEANING UP"

The Time to be Announced Later.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle, Committee From Chamber of Commerce, Submits Report Showing Extent of Typoid and States That General Cleaning Up of City Would Largely Eliminate Cause—Other Business Before Aldermen Last Night.

The Board of Aldermen was in regular session last night, the session lasting until after 11 o'clock. Several matters of importance came up. All the members of the board were present excepting Alderman Ellington.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle, a committee of one from the Chamber of Commerce, appeared before the board and submitted a map showing the number of cases of typhoid fever in the city during the past four and a half years, the map showing the location of each case. Accompanying the map was the following report submitted to the Chamber, which had been referred to the Board of Aldermen:

"We your committee on sanitation, beg leave to make the following report:

"The accompanying map has marked on it the places where typhoid fever has occurred for 4 1/2 years. It is so wide spread and general all over the city that it is unnecessary to claim any particular localities as foci for the dissemination of the germ, but the uncleaned back lots, well water and unsanitary privies are believed to be responsible for the continuance of this disease. We therefore recommend that the Chamber of Commerce ask the Honorable Board of Aldermen to have as soon as possible a 'clean up week' and see that every back lot or any other place that needs it is put in a sanitary condition and that the Board of Health be authorized to employ such extra teams and help as shall be necessary to answer the demands for the removal of trash and garbage, that the owners of houses where open privies are used be required to adopt at once sanitary ones and houses hereafter to be built should have toilet arrangements made and as soon as practical should be connected with the sewer, and that any street which shows indications that well water on it is infected the city water be run there if practical, and the well or wells be condemned."

To show the good work of the Board of Health in 1906, there were 71 cases of typhoid. 1907, 62; 1908, 53; 1909, 30. While so far in 1910 the record is not so good the cause was found at once and can be remedied. There have been 35 cases to date, eight of these on one street and the well water which was being used was found upon examination to be bad.

"We also recommend that the superintendent of health be required when requested by either teacher or parent to examine, or see that it is done by some competent physician the children in the public schools, for any eye, or ear defect, decayed teeth, adenoids or hookworm infection. Statistics show that from 15 to 20 per cent of children have some eye deficiency. Five per cent some ear trouble; 5 to 20 per cent. have adenoids, 90 per cent decayed teeth, and 25 per cent. hookworm. It has been proven beyond controversy that a child with either of the above defects stands lower in his classes than he otherwise would as is demonstrated by the removal or correction of the existing trouble. For instance a child with hookworm after successful treatment improves 25 per cent in his studies and about the same or more in physical development."

"If any trouble should be found let it be reported to the parents and fully explained. We believe if this could be carried out the city would get 25 per cent. or more on its investment in the way of healthier young men and women and better mental equipment."

"We also recommend that the present meat and milk inspection law be rigidly enforced as we realize that great good has already resulted."

While no final action was taken it was the sense of the board that the city have a "cleaning up week" as suggested and the time for this will likely be fixed at the next meeting. It was also suggested that the civic league be asked to co-operate with the city in this undertaking as the movement last year was a decided success as managed by the civic league.

The Board of Education submitted sketches of plans for the central school building as submitted by Hook & Rogers and recommended that the contract for the plans be made, there being an understanding that the plans were not to cost anything unless the building could be erected according to the plans for the sum of $25,000. The plans will call for a handsome pressed brick two story building with basement. There are five class rooms, the superintendent's office and the auditorium on the first floor. There are five class rooms and rooms for the domestic art, physical laboratory and domestic science departments on the second floor. The plans are drawn so the building can be added to at any time. Mr. F. A. Weston, also submitted sketches of plans and asked that his be considered. He declared that the building could not be erected according to the plans proposed by Messrs. Hook & Rogers for less than $35,000. Mr. Ireland explained why the board thought the plans of Mr. Weston were not as good as those recommended, and he pointed out the difference as seen by the board.

Some ordinances pertaining to sidewalk paving were passed. Attention was called to the need of East Washington, between Davie and Elm, and Buchanan street being rebuilt. It was decided to hold an adjourned meeting on next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to consider whether or not the streets shall be paved.

The board accepted a deed for Magnolia street. Several applicants were granted license to drive autos. Messrs. C. M. Vanstory and W. R. Land appeared before the board and made objection to having to pay for new sidewalks.

MORE ALASKAN FRAUDS

Ballinger Said to Have Unearthed Big Land Scheme. Spokane, Wash., Sept. 23.—The Chronicle says:

"An investigation of suspected Alaskan land frauds, which may exceed in scope and startling developments the famous Cunningham cases, is believed to be in progress by federal officers in the Northwest."

"This investigation, which is said to involve an entirely new group of claims in charges similar to those brought against the Cunningham entries, is believed to have been instituted and actively pushed by Secretary of the Interior Ballinger."

"The list of entrymen involved is said to include many men of prominence in Spokane and its vicinity, as well as others of national importance."

"Secretary Ballinger's recent visit to Spokane, according to the rumors afloat here, was made in furtherance of the investigation now in progress by officials of the Land Office and the Department of Justice."

ELON COLLEGE

Monument For Athletic Building Growing—Students Arriving.

Elon College, Sept. 22.—The movement for a Y. M. C. A. athletic building, 50 by 100 feet, 20 feet high, which was inaugurated at the opening of the fall term has been steadily gaining on the college community since the day of its inception. Mr. E. T. Hines, president of the Y. M. C. A., and Messrs. R. A. Campbell, J. P. Farmer, E. T. Hines, A. T. Banks and W. H. Fleming constitute the committee on the ways and means. Quite an enthusiastic mass meeting was held last night and a goodly number of speeches were made. Dr. Atkinson and Mr. H. H. Holland, the latter of Suffolk, Va., delivered short talks of encouragement. Music was furnished by the college band.

Students continue to arrive every day and others report themselves as intending to come shortly. Already the student body represents 10 states and the enrollment is the largest yet in the history of the college at this time.

SUPERIOR COURT AT A STANDSTILL

There Was no Session Yesterday Afternoon.

Sudden Termination of the Case Caused Confusion of Schedule—Two Cases To Be Disposed of Today—Grand Jury Still At Work—Order Signed in Case of S. B. Adams vs. Marion and Lester Butler by Judge Lyon.

The sudden termination of the case against Dr. W. L. Vestal and wife yesterday morning caused some confusion as to the schedule of cases and there were no cases ready for trial in Superior court yesterday afternoon. The supposition being that the Vestal case would consume all of yesterday, the witnesses in other cases had been told they would not be needed before this morning. There are yet two cases to be disposed of. That of Sam Ingle, charged with allowing a still to be operated on his premises, and Sam Allen, charged with housebreaking and also with retailing. These will be taken up this morning.

There were several small cases continued yesterday morning after the Vestal case was disposed of. Judge Lyon also signed the following order in the case of S. B. Adams vs. Marion Butler and Lester Butler:

"This cause coming on to be heard before His Honor, C. C. Lyon, judge holding September term, 1910, of the Superior Court of Guilford county and it appearing that from the statement of counsel in open court that an agreement of the above entitled case has been effected, and the terms of said agreement between the plaintiff and the defendants, which is also signed by their counsel, being reduced to writing and being as follows:

"For the purpose of effecting an amicable settlement of the litigation now pending between us, it is mutually agreed as follows:

"That the defendants published the charges set forth in the bills of indictment on the information and belief that they were true, and that the defendants published the said articles after they had been, in substance, published by other newspapers, and that the same were published without express malice, and that the jury found that the publications were not true, and that a new trial has been ordered by the Supreme court, but on technical grounds not involving the merits of the controversy:

"It is further agreed that both parties shall ask for a nolle pro. of all the criminal cases pending against defendants, and that a nonsuit shall be suffered in the civil actions of Spencer B. Adams vs. Marion Butler and Lester P. Butler, and Spencer B. Adams vs. the Caucasian Publishing Company."

"This 28th day of July, 1910."

"It is therefore, by consent, ordered adjudged and decreed that judgment of nonsuit is hereby entered."

It is quite probable that no process will be asked for in the criminal cases this morning. It is understood that Solicitor Gattis and County Attorney J. N. Wilson will protest against the cases being nolle prossed unless provision is made to cover the costs in the case that has been before the court. It will be remembered that the case consumed an entire week, a large number of witnesses being brought here at enormous expense. If the cases are simply nolle prossed the county will be required to pay the costs in the action and this it is held should not be allowed.

The grand jury has not yet completed its work, but will make the report this morning. As a usual thing this body completes its work by Thursday or Friday and the grand jury is no doubt making a careful investigation of the several county institutions in accordance with Judge Lyon's charge.

A HARD FIGHT

THE STORY OF A FAILURE

The writer was called to the phone by a prominent attorney of San Francisco who said that a friend of his was dying of Bright's Disease and that if he could do anything to send the treatment and a physician. Both were sent. The doctor phoned back that the patient was at the end of a year's fight with chronic Bright's Disease and was almost a skeleton, and was in coma, and that the priests had administered the last rites, and that the attending physicians had told the patient's wife that it was only a question of hours and he declared with a considerable spirit that he had practically been called in to sign the death certificate. The patient, a San Francisco business man, was in charge of the nurses. They said that nothing had passed into or out of the patient's stomach for twenty-four hours; that it had ceased to act—would not hold peptonized milk—and that their physician did not think that there was any chance in a thousand, but started a hard fight for that chance. Jumping into a carriage, he went to Wakelee & Co.'s and procured a high twenty inch tube and the necessary adjuncts and returned for an all night's fight to keep the patient alive. After four hours with emulsions through the high tube the impacted feces were removed and, as the stomach had almost ceased functioning, the patient was fed and given both treatment and food per rectum. The food and treatment were administered and withdrawn every three hours, night and day. The patient was given an alcohol and emulsion rub alternately every three hours. He was given no food by the stomach for ten days except a little champagne and cracked ice. The second day he began to move a little. The fourth day he was beginning to clear mentally. In two weeks his stomach began to accept chicken and solid foods. In a month he was walking around the room, and in two months (contrary to the strenuous advice of the physician) he insisted on taking a Southern trip. He was not as strong as he thought and suffered a relapse. The physician was telegraphed for and went South to attend and bring him home, but the trip and consequent relapse was so serious that the patient expired on arrival in San Francisco.

This was a battle against tremendous odds and it is our belief that it would have been won if the patient had followed the physician's advice and given up the trip until he was stronger. The attorney mentioned who called us up by phone was the Hon. Barclay Henley, ex-member of Congress and well-known lawyer of San Francisco. His offices are in the Pacific building on Market street and he will doubtless confirm these facts to anyone who may be interested. We refer to this instance and his name in connection with our consent. We could hardly afford to do this if the above was not strictly true. We consider the treatment that this physician used in this case to aid the Renal Compound as so important that it was at our request written up in detail giving the various prescriptions and formulae. We will mail it to physicians who may have critical cases like the above.

Bright's Disease is now curable in a great majority of cases by the new emollient treatment—Fulton's Renal Compound. It may be had in your city at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

GREAT BRITAIN'S WEALTH.

Disclosed by the Government Inland Revenue Returns.

New York Sun.

Since the present Radical-Socialist Administration has put the screws on the British tax-payer we have been getting nearer the truth as to the aggregate wealth of the British nation. An official return for the year ended March 31, 1910, shows that the total declared income of persons resident in the United Kingdom has for the first time exceeded $5,000,000,000 in one year.

The exact figure is $5,049,679, 630, an increase of $145,000,000 over the previous fiscal year. The main sources of income were:

From business or professions, $2,830,000,000, an increase of $15,000,000.

From owning land and houses, $1,350,000,000, an increase of $110,000,000.

State and public company officials, $550,000,000, an increase of $27,500,000.

There are in England 237,180 income tax payers of the lowest grade, that is whose salaries are between $800 and $1,000 annually. With every additional $500 the number tapers down till it is found that there are 8,312 who earn from $4,000 to $5,000. Then there is a sudden jump to 21,172 persons who have from $5,000 to $10,000 a year. Then the figures drop again to 1,519 who draw between $20,000 and $25,000. At the tops of its ladder are 20 of fortune's favorites whose salaries exceed $250,000 a year.

The total income of 585,000 employees last year was $680,000,000, an average of $1,165 a head. The previous year there were 513,000 employees drawing an average of $1,105. Thus in a year the average salary of the employee has fallen $60.

The net value of estates on which succession duties were paid was $1,425,000,000 in 1909-10, an increase of $60,000,000 over the previous fiscal year. There were five estates in 1909-10 the value of which exceeded $5,000,000, and all were English.

"BOB'S BIG HEART"

William Astor Chanler Says That is Alone to Blame.

Paris Cor. New York World.

William Astor Chanler, in a statement made to the World today, for the first time discussed the affairs of his brother, Robert Winthrop Chanler and Mme. Cavalieri. He said:

"Anyone who knows Robert at all well knows he possesses a heart so big it would do harm to no one. He would sacrifice himself a thousand times rather than cause injury to any one, particularly to a woman he has so loved as to make his wife. Robert is a painter, an artist, a dreamer, who has seen little of the world, who has never had to bear its hard knocks in his youth, and has grown up to be a man who believes every other man is his friend. He trusts every one; he is the last person in the world to suspect the motives of any one who professes friendship for him. All the difficulties he has been in have come from this spirit, which is beautiful, when looked at romantically from the poet's viewpoint, but which, unfortunately, has little place in this practical world."

Mrs. Jacob Wilmet, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Holton Drug Co.

CHALLENGED SHERMAN'S SONS.

Had They Cast Votes in Home Ward They Would Have Saved Father.

Two sons of Vice-President Sherman were challenged for voting yesterday at the primaries in a district of the Seventh ward with their father. They live in the Eleventh ward, but they heretofore voted in their father's home ward. They swore in their votes. Sherman's delegates lost the Seventh, but had the sons voted in the Eleventh they would have carried it for their father, as the progressive majority there is but one.

The Second Assembly District convention chose nine delegates today to the State convention and instructed them for Roosevelt for temporary chairman.

A new committee was selected, throwing out the old organization committee completely.

SHE WAS AGGRESSIVE.

Lucky For the Little Man He Was Not Her Husband.

The lady in the offside corner of the tramcar possessed a truculent air and a discolored eye.

"Funny thing any one can't take a penny ride without everybody glaring at 'em," she remarked, fixing a small gentleman wearing gray whiskers and a somewhat rusty top hat with her normal optic.

The small gentleman suddenly became interested in a soap advertisement.

"If any one can't 'ave a black eye without Tom, Dick and Harry asking questions things are comin' to a pretty pass," continued the lady.

Silence, allied with soap advertisement study, though eminently discreet, was ineffective.

"You 'im a-talkin' to." The lady prodded the small gentleman's knee with her umbrella. "Bin settin' there this last ten minutes, you 'ave wonderin' if my 'usbun' gives it to me. If it'll ease yer mind, 'e did. Is there anything else?"

"Madam," the small gentleman commenced, "had I been your husband?"

"I should 'a' got off at th' cemetery with a wreath instead o' goin' ter the 'orsepital with a visitor's ticket," snapped the lady. "and the wreath wouldn't 'a' been expensive either." — London Ideas

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes:

"That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

"BOB" TAFT ENTERS HARVARD.

Will Study Law With Philbin and Wodell, Yale Classmates.

New Haven Cor. New York Tribune.

Three of the most prominent members of the senior class of the Yale Academic Department last June have decided to enter the Harvard Law School this fall.

They are Robert Alphonso Taft, son of President Taft; Stephen Philbin, son of the former New York District Attorney, and Ruthven Wodell, Philbin captained the Yale baseball team and Wodell the crew last season. Taft led his class in scholarship and tried for the varsity crew for two seasons.

The trio will room together in Winthrop Hall, where the Yale squad sent annually from the academic department to the Harvard professional schools is quartered. Philbin has gone to Beverly to be the guest of young Taft till the fall term opens at Harvard.

The Lash of a Fiend would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It has most trouble some at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, la grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her

Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, cures the itching, restores the hair to its natural intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. N. C. Weatherly Will Do a Strictly Cash Business.

After September 15, Mrs. Weatherly will discontinue the credit business and sell strictly for cash on delivery. This step will be of mutual benefit, for it is evident, that if no money is put out for stationary, postage, collectors per cent and no lost accounts, she can sell goods much less than any house running on the credit system. Her goods will be marked for cash and sold for cash only. Mrs. Weatherly wishes to take the opportunity to thank the ladies for their liberal patronage and solicit a continuance of the same under the new cash system.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

stops the cough and heals lungs.

Woman's True Friend

Experimenting with new and untried medicines is foolish, and often dangerous. It would take a medicine more than forty years, to prove itself so universally good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. During all that time it has been woman's favorite medicine—a restorative tonic, uplifting and invigorating the nervous and discouraged and giving them the final touch of perfect health.

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

in preference to all other advocated medicines for it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs—is not anything like advertised, secret, or patent medicines—does not claim to be able to do impossible things.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments, and adapted to her delicate organization.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient or its outside wrapper.

You can't afford to allow yourself to be over-persuaded into accepting any secret nostrum as a substitute for this honest square-deal non-secret medicine. Don't do it. No honest druggist will attempt to cheat you in this way. He who does should be rebuked and avoided. Doctors prescribe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their worst cases because they know what it contains and know its ingredients to be of the very best.

It's well now and then to gently cleanse out bowel germs that breed weakness, cause foul breath, loss of appetite, dizziness and headache. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep bowels sweet and clean. Recommended by druggists because of their purity, goodness, and active gentleness.

QUEER WEDDING GIFTS.

One Couple of Mature Years Received a Pair of Coffins.

An Englishman extremely fond of hunting received as a wedding gift from an anonymous person a complete set of false limbs a set of artificial teeth and a couple of glass eyes, to procure all of which the sarcastic donor must, of course, have put himself to considerable expense. Accompanying these strange presents was a note wherein the hope was expressed that, by reason of the recipient's many falls while following the hounds, some or all of these substitutes might ultimately prove of use. As the bridegroom had incurred much enmity while holding office under his government, it was supposed that these gifts came from a disappointed office seeker.

A well known American writer received from a rival man of letters a scrap book wherein were carefully pasted and indexed many hundreds of clippings containing adverse criticisms touching the former's work, and a popular artist was presented with a set of elementary works upon self instruction in drawing and painting.

Some years ago in the west an elderly, crusty merchant on espousing a spinster of mature age was presented by an undertaker with two coffins for himself and wife, a letter which accompanied these ghastly gifts stating that they would, unlike most of the other offerings received, be sure to be of service. Naturally enough the bridegroom resented this singular if useful gift, and it took all the efforts of mutual friends to prevent a breach of the peace.

Like vexation was no doubt felt by an infirm octogenarian in Ohio who wedded a pleasure loving woman more than fifty years his junior. The present in this case was a large brass cage, "intended," so the inevitable accompanying letter stated, "to restrain the wayward flights of a giddy young wife who has married a decrepit old fool for his money."—Chicago Record-Herald.

PIRATES OF HONGKONG.

They Are the Real Old Fashioned Bloodthirsty Kind.

There are pirates in Hongkong—not the usual kind that greet the gentle stranger with an expansive smile and take what he has for worthless rubbish, nor yet the petty thieves that go by that name on our own water fronts, but the real old fashioned, murderous kind, who count not the victims as they reckon the spoils.

Of course they do not swagger in costume, as all real pirates should, or ply their trade in Hongkong's immediate waters, but among the thousands of fishermen, stevedores and coal handlers that crowd the harbor's edge they mingle and gossip water front news, knowing well when a particularly rich cargo is due from the interior.

And in the purple twilight a junk darts out of one of the many estuaries far up the West or Pearl river and swoops with the suddenness of a hawk on the heavily laden prize. The struggle is short. Over the hills on the naked backs of a swarming crew the loot disappears forever from a smoking hulk in the rice swamps, or, as happened in the case of the Salmag, half a hundred take passage in the crowded hold of a river steamer and when the handful of unsuspecting whites gather at dinner raise a heathenish yell on the startled air, and the ship is taken.

Rides thrust through bolted doors subdue the pitiful fire that lasts a little while from behind the shot torn tablecloth, but the ship is already headed for the bank by the quartermaster with a rifle at his ear, and one more tragedy is added to the long list of crimes on the Sikiang.—W. J. Aylward in Harper's Magazine.

Suicide by Swallowing Gold.

Suicide by swallowing gold is sometimes accomplished in China. The following is an authoritative account, written by a very learned Chinese for the Westminster Gazette, of how this much contested form of suicide is accomplished:

"In swallowing gold it is not loose gold leaf or gold dust that is swallowed, but a solid lump of gold, or even a gold ring, weighing about half an ounce. Gold is not at any time of a corrupting nature, but when a lump of it is swallowed and gets into the bowel it falls, on account of its intrinsic weight, to rise and surmount the convolutions of the bowels and can therefore never complete its passage. After two or three days it therefore sinks through the bowel and destroys life without any suffering."

An Unfortunate Response.

The problem of too many churches in a given locality is often a perplexing one. It is said that the churches in a certain village, on opposite sides of the streets, were so close that when the congregation in one church sang "Will There Be Any Stars In My Crown?" the congregation in the other church promptly responded, "No, Not One; No, Not One." Fortunate is it if the seeming contradiction is confined to the unintentional inharmonious responses in songs.—Lippincott's.

Table All Right.

"Do they have a good table?" asks the prospective guest.
"It is first rate," answers the man who has just returned—"solid oak with heavy legs and a polished top."—Judge.

A Question of Gifts.

"Why did you deliberately make an enemy of your old friend Jinks?"
"Because he is to be married next month."—Lippincott's.

The Colonel says that the Old Guard is licked to a frazzle. The New York Republicans have perhaps made up their minds to put up with the lesser of two evils.

Virginia is considering the extension of the time of its Legislature from sixty to ninety days. Even if it does that, the bulk of the important legislation will be left for the last fifteen days of the session.

President Taft denounces the Congressional "pork barrel." He therefore would not approve of the argument now and then advanced that the best Congressman is the one who can secure the greatest quantity of "pork" for his district.

There shouldn't be much of a re-nuance against the tobacco trust for reducing the size of its cigarette packages. It might prove a good thing for the youth of the land if the trust would charge five cents a piece for its "cotton rails."

It seems that Mr. Cannon is about the only man who got just such a tariff bill as he wanted.—Durham Herald.

They all wanted that kind, but Uncle Joe was the only man candid enough to say so. The old man flies the black flag boldly and is to be commended for not adding deception to his other political sins.

David B. Hill has been heard from. As usual he said something worth while. After speaking at Elmira, N. Y., on the need for greater economy in public affairs, Mr. Hill vigorously criticized indirect taxation. Of course people ought to understand that an indirect tax is just as much a tax as a direct tax. But they don't, else they wouldn't have been upholding by their votes a protective tariff for all these years.

An interesting item of newspaper news is that the Nashville Tennessean is to absorb the American. The Tennessean is the paper that the late Senator Carmack edited and is the organ of the anti-Patterson element in Tennessee. The American is an old institution and its absorption by Nashville's newest daily, the Tennessean, rather indicates that the things for which the Tennessean stand are pleasing to a large number of the substantial citizens of Tennessee.

Mr. J. J. Parker, candidate for Congress against Mr. Robert N. Page in the seventh district, admitted in a speech at Sanford Wednesday that two years ago, when just out of college, he offered his services as a speaker to the Democratic executive committee. His services were not needed, it seems, and in a short time Mr. Parker was making Republican speeches. He has also said, we have been told, that he cannot see how any right thinking man can be other than a Republican. We leave readers of The Journal to draw their own conclusions.—Winston Journal.

It was a tactical mistake on the part of the management of the Democratic party two years ago not to give John a chance to "orate" some. He was just out of college and he was obliged to open up on something. Had he been given a chance by the Democrats to deliver himself of his pent-up eloquence, the Democratic ticket would be a vote stronger in every election than it is.

Every county in the sixth district went for Godwin except Bladen, the home county of his opponent, Mr. Clark. This second primary very clearly reveals the fact that the voice of the people was suppressed in the convention that nominated Clark, and it vindicates the wisdom of the committee who remanded this matter back to the people. There are fifty citizens in the district who are stronger than Godwin, but in this country what the folks want they should have.—Charity and Children.

For the folks to have what they want is true democracy and this is said to be a government of, for and by the people. But it is possible to carry even a good thing to extremes. For instance, it does not seem to us that it would be necessary to have, as is suggested by some, the people to vote on the new city charter. Very few would study it carefully enough to be prepared to vote with discrimination and the chances are that, some objecting for some reason and some for another, the whole thing would be defeated. The proposed commission form of government has been carefully worked out by a committee of able, patriotic men, men we believe with no axes to grind and it would be, in our opinion, the part of wisdom to accept the instrument largely as they have framed it.

BE A BOOSTER.

If you see some fellow tryin' For to make some project go, You can boost it up a trifle; That's your cue to let him know That you're not a-goin' to knock it. Just because it ain't your "shout," But you're goin' to boost a little, 'Cause he's got "the best thing out." If you knock some fellow's failin', Just forget 'em 'cause you know, That same fellow's got some good points, Them's the ones you want to show; 'Cast your loaves out on the waters, They'll come back," 's a sayin' true; Mebbe they will come back "battered," When some fellow boosts for you.

POU WILL MEET
R. A. P. COOLEYJoint Canvass in The Fourth District.

Conference in a Few Days For the Two Candidates To Get Together on the Details of the Canvass—State Auditor B. F. Dixon Continues To Improve—Papers on the Founding of New Bern To Be Printed At An Early Date.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 23.—Congressman E. W. Pou has accepted the challenge of R. A. P. Cooley for a joint canvass of the district, Mr. Cooley being the independent Democratic candidate who received the endorsement of the district Republican convention here a few days ago. It is probable that Mr. Pou and Mr. Cooley will have a conference within the next few days with Mr. Pou to arrange the details for the joint canvass. The district includes Wake, Johnston, Nash, Franklin, Vance and Chatham counties.

A charter is granted the Bagwell Printing Co., Wilmington, capital $5,000 by W. R. Yopp and others for printing and rubber stamp business.

State Auditor B. F. Dixon continues to improve slowly from his recent attack of Angina Pectoris and the indications are that it will be a couple of weeks before he is able to leave the hospital. He is not allowed to receive callers yet.

The North Carolina Historical Commission has decided to have the DeGraffenreid papers bearing upon the founding of New Bern printed at an early date. The order was made at a meeting of the commission held yesterday afternoon. The papers were recently unearthed in German archives and are especially valuable historically.

Judge J. S. Adams is directed by Gov. Kitchin to hold the Alamance county special term of Superior Court ordered for November 14 that Judge Ward was first commissioned to hold. The reason for the change is that Judge Ward has a regular court to hold that has a conflicting date.

The Corporation Commission is mailing out its eleventh annual report which is pronounced one of the most valuable volumes the commission has ever issued. Included are the freight tariffs effective on all North Carolina roads, a compilation of the state banking laws, etc., etc.

West Market Revival.

The revival services at West Market Street Methodist church continue in interest. Large congregations are present each night to hear Rev. E. K. McLarty, who is preaching sermons of power. Each day at noon laymen's prayer services are held and the Betts' Baraca class meets also for a prayer service. The women hold a prayer service each afternoon at 5 o'clock and the Philathea class holds a prayer service at 7:30, a half hour before the preaching service. These prayer services are being largely attended and those present are inspired by the able and sincere talks of the leaders.

Notice.

All members of the Daughters of Pocahontas are requested to be present tonight as business of importance will come before the meeting.

MARRIED MEN ARE MOST INTERESTING

Bachelor Men In Comparison Mere Chicks, Not Out of Shell.

Philippa Lyman, in the Smart Set. The interesting and delightful men are all married. I found that out years ago, about the same time I discovered that none of the eligible men of my acquaintance would ever do as husbands. It has made me wonder if good husbands are born and not made, or whether it is the refining influence of the "the women" in their lives that has made them so adorable. Very likely that is it—or else they had good mothers, who began their education before they were born. Or is it—I shrink from saying it—is it that we women have become imbued with that same thirst for the unattainable that from time immemorial has been the undoing of men? Are the good old days, when a husband and wife had no thought for any one on earth but one another, really gone, and is everyone discontented and groaning under the matrimonial chains and fetters? Is the real reason why we attract or are attracted by other women's husbands that we are unattainable or forbidden? It cannot be true! There must be something less petty than the crying of the child for the moon behind it all.

There are bachelors downtown, too, many of them. But somehow, those whom I met seem crude and unformed in comparison with the "other women's husbands" immature and untactful. Back in my little country village I used to assist the Plymouth Rock men with the hatching of her chicks, picking off little bits of shell from the round balls of feathers and helping in my clumsy way that the chick might get its bearings. I am always wanting, figuratively, to poke off a bit of shell here and there from the bachelors of my acquaintance and watch them get their eyes open—the poor things are so blind where women are concerned.

CHANDLER DROPS CAVALIERI

Revokes Power of Attorney and Antenuptial Agreement.

New York, Sept. 23.—Sidney Harris, the personal attorney for Robert W. Chandler, said yesterday that Chandler has revoked the power of attorney and the other terms of the antenuptial agreement in favor of Cavalieri, and that formal notice to this effect has been sent to the Union Trust Company, trustees of the Delano estate, the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company, trustees of the Robert W. Chandler trust fund, and to Lewis S. and Winthrop Chandler, trustees of the Chandler trust estate. The revocation of the agreement will not be filed, it was said, because it is not necessary.

Mr. Harris said he would file in a day or so his client's answer to the suit of Mrs. Julia Chamberlain Chandler, who seeks to set aside the antenuptial agreement on the ground that her dower right to certain property involved in Chandler's ability to pay her $20,000 a year alimony is endangered. Mr. Harris would not say what the reply will be, but indicated that it will not be a general denial.

It was said in behalf of the Chandler family today that the efforts of Robert's brother and sisters to induce him to give up all intention of going back to Cavalieri had succeeded, and that it was the plea of his sister, Mrs. Richard Aldrich, formerly Margaret Livingston Chandler, that moved him to give the promise.

Chandler has agreed, it was said, that when Cavalieri arrives here he will keep in the background and permit his lawyers to handle his case.

Those who dance must pay the—chir—opodist.

Didn't Want It Flattened.

This story is told of Jerome K. Jerome, the humorist. Returning from abroad one time, he fell into good company, with the exception of one man, who was what is known as "a walking encyclopedia." This man persisted in giving all sorts of information, much to the annoyance of Mr. Jerome and others. One morning, as the travelers leaned over the rail, admiring the rising sun, the man with the information turned to them and said almost solemnly:

"Gentlemen, if the earth were flattened out the sea would be two miles deep over the whole world."

Mr. Jerome turned around, seemingly stunned. Then he grew indignant, and, walking over to the other man, he said, shaking his finger menacingly:

"Look here, man, if you catch any fellow trying to flatten out the earth shoot him on the spot. I can't swim." —Philadelphia Times.

London's Town Hall.

The guildhall is an important public building in London, which may be regarded as the town hall, and is the place of assembly of several courts, as the court of common council, the court of aldermen, the chamberlain's court and a police court presided over by one of the aldermen. The construction of the building was begun in 1411. It was partially destroyed in the great fire of 1666, but was soon restored, and in 1789 it was altered to its present form. The hall proper is 153 feet in length, 48 in breadth and 55 in height. It has been famous for centuries for the magnificence of its civic feasts. The first time it was used for this purpose was in 1500, when Sir John Shaw, goldsmith, who had been knighted on the field of Bosworth, first gave here the lord mayor's feast.

The Miserable Villain.

Low Comedian—After all these years Eggbert has at last succeeded in making a hit with the audience.

Soubrette—So? How does he do it? Low Comedian—You know he has always played villain roles.

Soubrette—Yes. Low Comedian—Well, in the last act of a new play the author allows him to repent and say, "I've been a miserable villain." That confession invariably brings down the house.—Boston Post.

A Safe Lead.

"I hear Lem Boggs Sundayed with ye, deacon?"

"Yaas."

"Goin' to lose yer darter, eh?"

No Danger of That.

Mrs. Stubbs—John, no true man will smoke up his wife's curtains. Mr. Stubbs—I should say not. Anybody that smokes curtains would be a freak. I prefer cigars.—Chicago News.

Those who can command themselves command others.—Hazlitt.

"Wel, I'm glad the championship remains in America."

The Important Problem

confronting anyone in need of a laxative is not a question of a single action only, but of permanently beneficial effects, which will follow proper efforts to live in a healthful way, with the assistance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, whenever it is required, as it cleanses the system gently yet promptly, without irritation and will therefore always have the preference of all who wish the best of family laxatives.

The combination has the approval of physicians because it is known to be truly beneficial, and because it has given satisfaction to the millions of well-informed families who have used it for many years past.

To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

ishment is also to punish the individual committing the offense. No punishment is adequate unless it deters. In giving the defendant the very limit of the law I trust sufficient warning will be given to all so this will be the last case of the kind ever known in the criminal records in the state. Let the defendant be confined in the state prison at hard labor for a term of 10 years."

Mrs. Vestal was busy yesterday afternoon packing up her belongings which she was allowed to keep in the county jail. She returned to High Point last night. Dr. Vestal was seen during the afternoon and he stated that he was taking everything easy. He stated that while he appeared to be a stout, robust man he was in reality quite weak and could not run half a block without endangering his life. He is now under the treatment of the county physician and Dr. McAnally. He asked Sheriff Jones whether he would be carried to Raleigh before Tuesday or not, saying that he wanted to get some heavy underwear from High Point before leaving if possible. When asked if he would make a statement Dr. Vestal said he did not care to talk at present, or rather he did not feel like saying anything; that the exertion of the past two days had worn him out and he did not feel like sitting up for any length of time. Otherwise he appeared jolly and good natured, joking with Mr. Apple and Sheriff Jones.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKERS.

Several Political Speeches To Be Made In County in October.

Democratic County Chairman Sherrill has arranged to have several prominent Democrats to make speeches in the county in October. Among those who will make speeches are Victor S. Bryant, B. F. Royster, E. B. Jones, Gov. W. W. Kitchin, ex-Gov. C. B. Aycock. There is also a possibility that Hon. Claude Kitchin will make an address in the county. The dates have not yet been arranged, but will be announced in a few days.

County Chairman Sherrill has opened up his headquarters and everything is running smoothly. He is at work preparing the schedule for the county candidates and this will probably be completed this afternoon. The headquarters phone is 1235 and the offices are just in the rear of the court house. Arrangements are being made for a big time at Stokesdale on Oct. 8 when Maj. Stedman and the county candidates will address the voters of that section of the county.

The fellow who is always making an exhibition of himself finds it no trouble to show goods.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Avoid Danger

When you are sick, or suffering from any of the troubles peculiar to women, don't delay—take Cardui, that well-known and successful remedy for women. HOBLE BLOCKS TROLLEY.

A Woman in Tightened Garment Finds Difficulty in Getting on Car. Philadelphia Record.

That much maligned importation of fashion, the hobble skirt, created a block and almost a riot on a southbound Seventeenth street trolley yesterday afternoon. The car, one of the pay-within variety, had reached Seventeenth and Arch streets when the catastrophe, for such it was, occurred.

A woman arrayed in the latest hobble, with a package in one hand and a parasol in the other, stepped, or rather hopped, from the curb and attempted to board the car.

Then several things happened at once. The lady made an ineffectual attempt to master the one-foot raise of the lowered step, lost her balance and fell backward into the waiting arms of a portly gentleman about to enter the car. Umbrella and package fell to the street, from whence they were gathered up while the hobble-skirted lady made another attempt at the step, but without avail. Passengers craned their heads out of the windows, the motorman rang his bell impatiently, while the conductor offered varied suggestions.

Finally a short consultation was held and as a result a trio, consisting of the conductor, portly gentleman and a volunteer spectator, joined hands and bodily lifted the lady, hobble-skirt, parasol and all, into the car.

The trolley bowed merrily down Seventeenth street, followed by half a dozen other cars in close order, while the conductor, wiping his brow, formulated a scheme wherewith to aid the lady in getting off when she arrived at her destination.

Wasted Energy.

Atchison Globe. Some day a genius will arise and make a fortune by harnessing the energy now wasted on the average salt shaker.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Holton Drug Co.

"Too many cooks spoil the broth," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, just as too many appetizers spoil the appetite," agreed the Simple Mug.

It Saved His Leg.

"I thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Helpless.

Chicago Tribune. Truth, having been crushed to earth again, lay helpless.

"What's the use!" exclaimed Truth, making no effort to rise. "I shan't try to get up until after the election. I can't buck against a million campaign lies!"

Two Short Words.

"The best," well describes the satisfaction every user feels when he tries Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve for his head or chest cold, or his croupy child. It is a comfort, a cure and a joy. Try a jar and get your money back if not pleased.

When In Doubt.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch. The standing advice for voters in all states this fall is the old rule: When in doubt vote the Democratic ticket.

Sound mind in sound body is best condition for our highest achievements. Sound body depends on the liver and bowels performing regularly their proper function. Vick's Little Liver Pills correct irregularities and keep these organs in fine shape by this gentle, harmless aid.

Drop In And Look Over Our New Fall Regals

You can tell at a glance that their lines are trimmer and smarter, and their workmanship superior to that found in other ready-to-wear shoes. And there is a reason for this.

are built on the very newest and smartest custom lasts, by the most skillful bench workmen. Other ready-to-wear shoes don't have these exclusive custom shapes until the following season—when these styles are out of fashion.

We recommend these Regals for long service, and guarantee to fit you correctly and comfortably.

MRS. W. R. DENNY DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday Shortly Before Noon—Funeral This Morning

Her many friends throughout the city were shocked yesterday afternoon to learn of the death of Mrs. W. R. Denny, which occurred at the family residence, 229 North Cedar street, yesterday shortly before noon. She was in her forty-first year and had been ill only a short time. Mrs. Denny before her marriage was Miss Montgomery, a sister of Mr. W. M. Montgomery, who with her husband survives.

The funeral will be held from the late residence this morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. R. Murphy Williams, pastor of the Church of The Covenant. Following the service the remains will be taken to Bethel Presbyterian church, east of the city, for interment. The following will act as pall bearers: Messrs. H. C. Taylor, J. R. Brown, J. M. Kirkland, K. J. A. Lung, W. W. Smith and D. R. Aiken.

Mrs. Denny was esteemed by all who knew her. An acquaintance of the family said in talking of her last night that he had not known a more useful woman. She was active in church work, a diligent homemaker and a splendid neighbor. Her death means a personal sorrow to a wide circle.

FORMER RESIDENT DIED YESTERDAY IN CHARLOTTE.

Mr. J. W. Mangum Expires At Hospital Following An Operation.

Mr. J. W. Mangum, a former resident, died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock in St. Peter's hospital in Charlotte. His brother, Mr. T. F. Mangum, left here night before last for Charlotte on learning of his critical illness. Misses Sallie and Bertha Corl, relatives of Mrs. Mangum, went to Charlotte yesterday at noon to attend the funeral, which will take place this morning at 10 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon's Charlotte News gives the following account of Mr. Mangum's death:

"Mr. James W. Mangum, a well known and highly respected citizen of Charlotte, died this morning at 6 o'clock at St. Peter's hospital.

"Mr. Mangum had been in poor health for some time. Two weeks ago he underwent an operation for gall stones. He failed to rally from the operation, and his decline has been gradual. The final change, portending death, came on last night. With Mr. Mangum at the end were his wife and son and other relatives.

"Deceased was a native of Guilford, being born in Greensboro. He moved, when a young man, to Madison, where he engaged in the tobacco business. He was mayor of the town and was highly esteemed. He afterward lived in Shelby and came from there to Charlotte nine years ago. He engaged in the wholesale grocery business and was one of the best known merchants on West Trade street. "He was honest and upright in his dealings, charitable, kindly in heart and nature; a man of excellent qualities, having always a record of good citizenship.

"Mr. Mangum was a member of the Methodist church. His membership was at Tryon Street church, of which church he was a steward. Mr. Mangum was 54 years of age. He leaves a wife and one son, Mr. Will Mangum, and two brothers, Messrs. Thomas and Ab. Mangum, of Greensboro. Relatives by marriage are Mrs. B. J. Summerow and Mrs. A. P. Lynch, sisters of Mrs. Mangum.

"The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Rowe. The stewards of the church will act as pallbearers."

To Attend District Meeting.

The following Pythians went to Spray yesterday to attend the Seventh district meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night:

J. J. Phoenix, R. E. Mendenhall, W. L. Johnson, D. H. Collins, T. C. Parker, T. N. Reel, A. Whitley, A. L. Hicks, J. W. Jones, Whit R. Stone, L. E. Richardson, J. H. Pace, J. W. Griffith, E. J. Mendenhall, G. S. Bradshaw, C. C. McLean, J. M. Whitehead, C. H. Phillips, Geo. H. Royster, Marvin Boyles.

Mr. Adams' Funeral This Morning.

The funeral of the late Peter H. Adams will take place at 10:30 a. m. today at the residence of Mrs. S. C. Dodson, 327 East Market street and will be conducted by Rev. Thomas G. Faulkner, rector of Holy Trinity parish. Mr. Adams, who formerly lived here, died day before yesterday at Erie, Pa.
